PORTFOLIO UPDATE

During the week ended 3rd September 2021, Silverdale Bond Fund sold Huarong bonds while we purchased Vivo Energy bonds.

Vivo Energy PLC (Mkt Cap: US$ 1.94bn) is a leading retailer and distributor of Shell and Engen-branded fuel and lubricants with presence in 23 countries across Africa. As of June 2021, company reported LTM revenue of US$ 7.5bn with net profit of US$ 153mn, EBITDA of US$ 389mn & Net debt of US$ 337mn, implying net debt to EBITDA of 0.9x and EBITDA Interest Coverage of 6.6x.

We would like to highlight that recent volatility in funds performance has been driven by Evergrande bonds.

Evergrande (Mkt Cap: US$ 7.9bn) is one of the world's largest property developers with contracted sales of US$ 112bn in FY 2020 and US$ 61.9bn in 7M 2021. As at June 2021, it reported a sizeable land bank of 214mn sqm with total assets of US$ 360.8bn. It reported unrestricted cash of US$ 13.4bn against short-term debt of US$ 37.2bn and long-term debt of US$ 51.2bn. While it reduced debt by US$ 23.6bn, its trade payables increased by US$ 18.9bn which has been a point of concern. After June 2021, Evergrande sold US$ 6.2bn of assets, and is actively seeking buyers for its other assets, including 68% stake in China Evergrande New Electric Vehicle (Mkt Cap: US$ 9.3bn) and 61% stake in China Evergrande Property Services (Mkt Cap: US$ 7.1bn).

Evergrande does not have any public USD bonds maturing until 2022. We primarily own April 2022 bonds, which have suffered substantial mark-to-market losses. Our current NAV reflects the prevailing low prices of Evergrande bonds which are trading marginally lower than the historical recovery rate range of 37% - 39% for high yield corporate bonds (Source: Moodys, 1983-2020). As usual, we are actively monitoring the situation and would take such action as warranted.
