PORTFOLIO UPDATE

During the month, the Fund's NAV declined by 1.39%, mainly due to Indian, French, and American credits, with sectoral declines led by Financial, Consumer Cyclical, and Technology. The drop was aggravated by mark-to-market losses from Interest Rate Swaps (IRS), as markets priced in further rate cuts. Consequently, the Fund's leveraged yield rose from 8.76% to 9.90%.

The Fund continues to maintain a relatively high-quality, diversified portfolio with a short duration of around 1 year, positioning it well to weather volatility. It has ample unutilized credit limits, no margin calls or fire sales, zero/minimal exposure to China, and a marginal overweight in India (which fell by -1% to -2% but with robust credit quality). The Fund is well-positioned for strong returns as markets recover and bonds pull to par at maturity.
